

H6V – Youth Services Counselor (June 2, 2005)

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
YOUTH SERVICES COUNSELOR I H6V1TX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in behavioral science, childhood development, correctional science, corrections, counseling, counseling psychology, criminal justice, criminology, education, guidance and counseling, helping/human services, human and development, police science, psychology, public safety, rehabilitation counseling, social work, sociology or youth and adult corrections.	Work experience which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.
YOUTH SERVICES COUNSELOR II H6V2XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in behavioral science, childhood development, correctional science, corrections, counseling, counseling psychology, criminal justice, criminology, education, guidance and counseling, helping/human services, human and development, police science, psychology, public safety, rehabilitation counseling, social work, sociology or youth and adult corrections and two years experience working with children/youth, corrections work with detained and/or adjudicated youth or youth counseling.	Work experience which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.
YOUTH SERVICES COUNSELOR III H6V3XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in behavioral science, childhood development, correctional science, corrections, counseling, counseling psychology, criminal justice, criminology, education, guidance and counseling, helping/human services, human and development, police science, psychology, public safety, rehabilitation counseling, social work, sociology or youth and adult corrections and three years experience working with children/youth, corrections work with detained and/or adjudicated youth or youth counseling.	Work experience which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.
YOUTH SERVICES ADMINISTRATOR H6V5XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in behavior science, childhood development, correctional science, corrections, counseling, counseling psychology, criminal justice, criminology, education, guidance and counseling, helping/human services, human and development, police science, psychology, public safety, rehabilitation counseling, social work, sociology or youth and adult corrections and five years experience working with children/youth/juveniles one year of which must have been at the supervisor level.	Work experience which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.